Mom: I did receive both Christmas cards, the birthday card and also the money. I hope you have been receiving my letters. I fell in love for a while and was quite distracted. Luckily I've now come to my senses. Your post doesn't seem like it is coming from an inebriated mind. I take Neurontin for the damage I sustained being beaten in Victorville so I know how they make you feel and they do not impair logic, reason or a person's ability to make sound judgments. If anything has gotten you in trouble it is likely your strong opinions, stubbornness and sensitivity. I know what that's like and just like the hip-hop song I get it from my mama 😊. You can't change the past. Ask your boss in a non-confrontational way how he thinks you could improve then do as he says. You don't have to like it or even agree with it but if it's important to you you will go along with it anyways. No matter what know that your son loves and supports you and always will.
