SAH: You really can be bizarre. I have never questioned the quality of legal assistance that I received. I feel, and the appeals court concurred, that my sentence was harsh. Too harsh in relation to my crime. You may disagree and I defend that right but your pessimism and misdirected anger are beneath you. You clearly are an intelligent person so its a shame you let the past shade your opinion of others so strongly. Judge others on who they are, not who they were. Im sure you have a few skeletons too. We all do.

Nicki: Dont feed into SAH's nonsense. In any event I, as a maximum security federal inmate, have heard worse forms of the profane and obscene ☹.
