PROPOSAL

ORGANIZE:

To assemble a diverse panel of paralegals, or attorneys to help prisoners regain their freedom but overall to receive a agreeable amount of justice within a already decided system, while also teaching a vast majority law illiterate of societies people how to effectively utilize the law to their 'advantage'.

INTERCONNECTION:

Acquaint our inner-worlds with the outter-worlds by linking different paralegals on the inside with the outside legal teams this would take corresponding and dialoguing about 'ways' of legal strategy while being in conjunction with our legal approach.

EXECUTION:

By starting the filing & litigation process of legal documents to multiple courts, meeting pivotal "time" limitations for 'newly' committed prisoners.

OBJECTIVE:

To secure webpages, websites, blogs, etc. to place the actual proposal on it. And to prepare them (people) for the proposition while creating a overture with chat-rooms, twitters, and so on.

GOAL:

To raise, earn, and generate funds in order to retain and/or pay for the normally and highly expensive legal fees of attorneys.

CONCLUSION:

We welcome any other ideas, suggestions, or directions for this prototype proposal. We in addition, hope that this mere mention will be enough to galvanize some readers to pursue the subject on their own initiative, and to intertwine their efforts with others in the chain to help bring about our proposal.
