

Boy, 12, convicted of killing his white Supremacist father.....

WHITE SUPREMACY IS A DRUG! It makes a person drunk with power and evil. It retards the growth and development (e.g. common sense) of white people who will remain dependent and addicted to the artificial "excellence", superficial qualifications, over compensation, preferential treatment created based on their white skin privilege. White Supremacy robs white people of their humanity and soul. Examine the history of white Supremacy behavior "then and now." people who practice it, "what progress have they made?" Self destructive affects and effect. Robs white people of their basic humanness, that themselves can't come to grips as seeing themselves as human and results in self destruct (eg. suicide) or Drug abuse, which leads to child abuse, spousal abuse, sexual, physical, mental abuse, hatred for parents, alcoholism. White Supremacy sets up unfair advantages based on superficial qualifications and merits, Mediocrity and Evil will continue to rule because white folks will not allow themselves to be the original creations designed by the God of the Universe, to be equal, to compete fairly without cheating or unfair privileges. Its okay to embrace your race, white folks for some odd notion - Reason, ~~HAVE~~ took the embracing of the white race to an extreme. Why? I was always told when someone puts someone else down and didn't seem to be not much better than the person they were putting down was due to LOW SELF ESTEEM and they needed that fix of putting someone else down to boost themselves up. Was white supremacy created cause white folks saw themselves as the weaker race and lack confidence in themselves? Well, in reality in the original creation of man, All humans were created with an ability system, god-like faculties. Paras. equally; - why they say all men are created equally. what makes us different is the colors and capacity of the human-being. Some people can think fast, some people cant, some people can run fast, some people cant, some people can sing, some people cant. Some people have wide noses, some people dont, some people have nappy hair, some people dont. some people have big butts, some peoplee dont. Some people are inclined to knowledge, some are not. All of these differences does not make one lesser of a human or should bring on law self esteem. White Supremacy is a "drug" created and used by evil forces, using the human vessel, of the lower abstract of the creation of Man. Distorting all levels of real moral excellence and ability to be humane (e.g. Kind, respectful, caring, loving to other human beings who are different.). A 10 year old child - who was subject to this type of environment - white supremacy, should not be put in prison (lockup) that is crazy and inhumane. This kid was probably trained and conditioned to use "weapon/s". I wouldn't ~~doubt~~ if this father talked crazy, probably used gun for gestures and motions (-role playing) for son. This little boy was probably traumatized from dysfunction in the household. And just wanted all the abuse to stop. already conditioned about guns, used the gun to stop this man, who apparently this little boy didn't see as his father. I can't see any little 10 year old, wanting to have their parents in death after being on earth only 10 years, 10 years of loving, knowing your parents, dad this, dad that, Hey dad, I love you dad, to grabbing a high powerful hand gun, 3.57, is powerful, and very intimidating to me, at age 43. and for a little 10 year old to use to kill his father is wayyyyy over the top, cause, yes, I am, or would be scared to pull the trigger of a 3.57 my life would have to be in Great danger, the adrenaline would have to be racing and only seconds to think fast, then on top of that I would still have to close my eyes. I just don't see where this little guy got all the confidence to use a gun. I'm assuming a 3.57. JERKS back when shot also. So he had to be strong or his little adrenaline was really racing. Poor baby. America already does not infiltrate enough laws to protect our children from violence and crimes against them. maybe I'm old fashioned, society is saying that 10 year olds know right from wrong, what life is all about, can pay bills, create children (babies), shoot guns, sell drugs, play the stock market, "Independently." 10 years on earth, a child ~~can~~ cannot inherit this know-how and ability, independently to do these things. A child not far from being 5 years, 5 years ago does not in depth know right from wrong. He/she knows

Boy, 12, convicted of killing his white supremacist father

RIVERSIDE, CALIF. — A boy who was only 10 when he fatally shot his white supremacist father was convicted Monday of second-degree murder by a judge who said the child knew what he did was wrong.

Riverside Superior Court Judge Jean Leonard weighed the severity of the crime versus whether the amount of abuse and neglect suffered by the boy, now 12, played a significant role in the slaying of Jeff Hall, 32, a regional leader of the National Socialist Movement.

Leonard noted the boy lay in bed, waited for the right moment and shot his dad at point-blank range with the "bad gun" — a .357 Magnum — while he slept on a sofa in the family home.

"This was not a complex killing," said Leonard, who heard the case without a jury. "He thought about the idea and shot his father."

The boy's stepmother told authorities that Hall had hit, kicked and yelled at his son for being too loud or getting in the way.

Hall and the boy's biological mother had previously gone through a divorce and custody dispute in which each had accused the other of child abuse. She initially told authorities she had killed Hall but then quickly retracted her statement.

Defense attorney Matthew Hardy said because of the abuse, his client learned it was acceptable to kill people who were a threat. The boy thought if he shot his dad, the violence would end, Hardy said.

Hall, who said he believed in a white break-away nation, ran for a seat on the local water board in 2010 in a move that disturbed many residents in the suburbs southeast of Los Angeles.

Prosecutors maintained Hall's white supremacist beliefs had nothing to do with the crime. They noted the boy had a history of violence that dated back to kindergarten, when he stabbed a teacher with a pencil.

But Leonard said in her decision that the white supremacist beliefs did have an effect on the boy and "gave him thoughts normal kids don't have."

Prosecutors said it's likely the boy, who is not being identified by The Associated Press because of his age, will most likely be placed in state custody, making him the youngest person currently in the custody of California's corrections department.

The boy showed no emotion after the verdict was read.

"He knew it was coming," Hardy said. "He's focused on trying to get it over with. Go someplace where he can get some help."

Sentencing was set for Feb. 15. The boy could be imprisoned until he is 23.
