zap 1964?

09 Feb 13

Im still wonderin what that "zap" thing is all about. Hey Rick — the blog-master just sent me another print-out of your reply to my 19 Nov. 12 message back 2-u. I've responded to that one already... but since they sent me that message under one I received from young will, I suppose you weren't ever notified via "reply ID". My calendar notes that I posted my reply blog to you on 1-8-13 — so maybe you can look back around there if you've missed it. I sure have been wonderin why you haven't written me since then.

You know that you can also write me directly at:

I pray all is well with you and yours bro.

Be blessed.
