

Love Story

When I first saw you, I felt a burning overwhelming desire to talk...

Could I telepathically convey what my mouth could not say.
Can I transfer the vibrations, and make you feel the sensations?
Consuming the very depth of my being...

Compel you to see what I'm seeing and feeling and I don't even know you --yet, but my mind is set. If only I could find the words, like songs of the birds, to match your entrancing beauty...

Now I believe in love at first sight; nothing else could explain this right; nothing else has taken me to this height; shining like the sun so very bright...

Is it possible that you noticed me staring at you? Did I see you eyeing me too? What should I do? If only you knew what I was going through.

Is this an indication to spark a conversation? Overcome my hesitation and get your information.

An opportunity neglected may never come again, and I can't keep what I'm feeling locked within.

It is better to have loved and lost than to have lost and never Loved?

So here goes the pain.. baby what's your name? Let me make this plain; there is so much I want to explain.

I seen you, I like you, I want to make you mine; you're so fine;
you're one of a kind, can I have a few minutes of your time...

To me it seems like you stepped out of my dreams from the pillow
at night to thrill me with delight...

Like a fantasy come true; so beautiful through and through, I just want to be with you.

Can we go on a date? We don't have to titillate; to hangout and communicate. I promise I won't keep you to late...

I want to give you so much; experience your touch.
I want to know how to sooth you and make you laugh;
take away your burden and cut your struggle in half.

Give me a chance to make you happy and show how much I care;
Let me open my heart to reach into yours and share a true love story made from our lives together forever.
