VOICE 12 - Hello, Thank you very much, for the content support I'm very grateful. You're right it was very confusing. But I want you to stay tuned, because thru my story, you will learn how I evolved from that confused child to a very understanding man. The reason why I used that quote was because violence is all I heard about prison, and when I got here, what I was hearing about the violence was true, but over the past ten-years prison is becoming non-violent, I'm glad for this change, now these men <sup>can</sup> focus their energy becoming caring human beings. I hope and pray I answer your question well.

Thank You Voice 12
