THE HISTORY AND CONCEPT OF THIS PAINTING BY ALI SHAKKA

15 x 20" cloth illustration board with acrylic paint

The concept of this painting and passion "show" a passionate side of the artist and expression and mood of the art itself. It took many hours and days to finish this African "Art." African art is beautiful, the colors show happiness as the people of Africa are free and happy people. Songs, Dance and compassion for nature is the soul of the African man and woman.

As you can see there are many animals in the background (elephant, wildebeest, cobra snake, and the majestic Giraffe whom is very gentle but has a deadly kick). The Giraffe is the tallest mammal of living four-footed animals. The mask is an African Culture mask used in dance, celebrations of the harvest, the rain, sun thanking (God) Allah for his blessings.

The saying is in the African Amerikkka culture Honey Hush! was said back in the 40's, it came from a song by J. Turner (he said it roll like a big wheel in King Jordan cotton field "Honey
