1 CONSCIOUS REFLECTION 3-2013

The Rant to Rave concept of this blog site extends from an desire I had a long time ago to publish a periodical, call it the periodical of 'LSP??'

[ A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF THE RANT TO RAVE BLOG SITE ]

But as with everything in this life process of human evolution, things do not happen when you desire it to. Some because at times in life, in the process of turning our dreams into reality, something that don't exist beside in our mind. That's a fragment of our imagination.

Human beings, human beings ideals, society, intends to evolve, mature, sometimes for the good, the prosperity for the human evolution cycle.

And more times than not our dreams don't become reality. They're not strong enough to survive the harsh process of human existence, so they die out... And we move on! And at other times, they're so vibrant with life that they burst forth gallantly into existance for a dream.

A fragment of our 'so tortuous imagination'.. Life! Existants! 'whether short or long, is marvelous' so marvelous indeed! Experiencing this dreams coming to life, I set out to bring this blog site. 'Rant to Rave' to its beautiful flourishing.

Due to my so demented imagination I have formatted this blog site into four articles not including the Rant to Rave. Rant to Rave is the name of the blog site or page, as well as the main feature article. You'll also get my Rants, my Raves, CONSCIOUS REFLECTION and my soulful cries columns as feature articles with the Rant to Rave blog site, submission... If you're curious as to why I title these columns as such, once you read them, I believe if you are a rational, conscious minded person your question will be answered.

I don't want you to believe that I'm not intelligent because I warn you of my lack of a higher educational back ground. That I will not put forth substance to be consumed by you psychologically, emotionally, spiritual or socially. It's my belief that through formal learning (whether collegiate or vocational) human ideals are hone to a precision sharpness, no matter how much one is autodidact.

what I mean by a person doing their one good deed for the year come from the movie 'pay it forward'. If you haven't seen the movie then I guess you should. Not every body is fit to do a good deeds. Pay it forward! They're, we're satanic in so many ways... Doing a good deed take alot of work. First you must be conscious, you must have a conscious understanding of the matter and circumstances surrounding it, and you must be prepare to follow it through. And you must be prepared to follow it through. You must have a conscious understanding of the matter alot of people in the leading industrialize societies that unconsciously throw their physical effort and funds into what is phrase today as 'charitable acts'. And they don't truly do it their supporting an organization that's conducting atrocities under the disguise of charitable acts.

Do to <sup>space</sup> requirement I'm only able to hold on to a article for a limited amount of time. If you have a comment on a specific section of the blog postings please be sure to include it with your comments or question.

I would love for you to blog about me. But if you want a interactive in sightful and understanding on my blog posting, you'll send me your question and comments in a 'so' civilize manner.

1 MY RANT 3.2013

B.T. WASHINGTON SEPARATE BUT EQUAL SOCIAL CONCEPT IS A SOCIALLY BANKRUPT CONCEPT.

First! Let me explain why I submitted this article, blog. I was commenting about something and heard a white woman reciting some brooker T. I'm Not Against Black Governments. I'm In Support of Them. I've met many of the Brooker Ts. They refer to me and my negro race as the whites. See, coming out of a wealthy, abusive, hateful, psychologically deranged, manipulative, self-hating, patricidal, pedophile molester womb as a benovolent child slated for the hard-knocks life. You learn everything you need to know about the Brooker Ts. In their views. The Harsh views! The real views of the world... from their eyes! But, in all truth! You can't blame her ~~and~~ or them alone for their points of views. The white society at whole is responsible in shaping their psychological views.

For my fifth birth day gift I was taught how money truly work and what it can buy. What is the true difficulties the white society faces and their hatred for the black man. The black-man hatred of itself, its weakness and subservant to the white race. Its hatred for the negro man. Her brother. His brother. Her son... But ward deen Muhammed is a black messiah. In fact? Any person of the black race whether black or negro that have the ability to lead one or more then one into the future to face and overcome the adversity that we face and not only become prosperous. But thrive in it. Is a black messiah. It's just that the blacks, the brooker Ts, seek prosperity at the spring and degrading of negro blood and his race. If their can be 2 or 3 different European culture and race i.e. The frenchman, The Irishman and the englishman. Then their can be within the black race two different race and culture. I like to thank America for teaching me how to hate. "It's a lesson I shall never forget." For I'm reminded of it every day... This is why the separate but equal social concept is a socially bankrupt concept. It teaches hatred. Racial hatred. But I shall not hate like the whites and blacks. For I am a negro man and I shall hate as God deems for me to hate.

It's morally, socially, psychologically, emotionally bankrupt but financially prosperous. You can have your house, car, bank account, your own business if you kill, rape, molest, betray your own beloved. ~~It's a bankrupt concept~~

I would have rather had a birthday party on my fifth birthday than the gift of being beaten into consciousness by a white male police officer in Los Angeles just to hear him say I rather have health over wealth after he been brought to do a dirty deed. The car he was riding in must not have felt so good while he was driving down those California streets. I would have rather had a 16th birthday party than the birth day gift of learning that Puyllup Washington could be turn against a negro child and his young mind could be manipulated by a white female english teacher at its city high school.

But most importantly Kelly Ripa, if your out there. If someone have the decency to draw your attention to this blog. The B.T. Washington social philosophy ~~philosophy~~ is a bankrupt concept because it stands against the concept of true individual, social, moral accountability, responsibility and divine justice. The process of human evolution.

RANT TO RAVE

All the names in these blogs posting has been poorly edited to comply with the rules and regulation of between the bars.

Those who are standing still or running around existing in fear being a nuisance in life gets to call the shots. I would have love to know that the women who birth me and my youngest male siblings loved me and now what that word is, instead of hearing them call me a N*GGE*. For the first time in life. They learn that from white America and taught it to me..

[Completion of PREA]

So! Remember The Peeping Tom (G.) *ALLOWAY. (G-way) The one that was checking me out. Like I'm some bad ass chick. You No! Yeah!!! Him... well. I had filed the rewrite and this is (S) *Camaborn <sup>disturb</sup> second reply. It's insensitive, intimidation, victimize coercion. and anything else you can think of! This is the reform process I'm being taught... which I already know, I might add... "That those in authority is above the law." Steven Seagal. IS RIGHT! But unlike in the movies, in life, they are promoted up in rank...

Complaint forms are available in the unit and you must use the forms. You did not answer my questions.

1) How can the C/O look under your boxers particularly if you are in your cell? 2) Give me an approximate time. Before breakfast... after lunch... I asked where in the unit - you answered that.

So like I said. I filed the rewrite and here it is:

You don't scare me. It's only an infraction. and I'll be at the hearing.

The same way a guy check out a girl trying to get a good look at her body...

In Log I.D. Number 13928885 you said I was in IMU. so IMU is where it happen.

I don't know the time it happen. They don't provide clocks. I was in my cell when the incident occur so I don't know if it was any witnesses.

You don't know if I'm making a false allegation or not without a Polygraph examination test conducted. And for the record... anytime you feel you have the courage to take one on the statements herein stated name the time and place and I'll be there at high noon...

When does exhausting a complaint in any form become completed in the face of a harassing, antagonizing authority... Is it more dignifying to accept death by the hand of his protector or the life of a fugitive at the sweet reward of a true vigilante act, divine justice. See, someone running around poking their nose in other peoples business is not a vigilante. That individual (who is not a police officer) is a misguided, idealistic (in most part) mentally disturb idiot. Now, don't take this comment out of context.

Any person seeing a Rodney King going down have a human duty to get involve. Or you will want to be smart. and I should not have to tell you why??

Life, is difficult as it is. It becomes, sometime more so, due to the satanic acts of individuals like the ones in this articles. What's the purpose of enacting laws if they don't apply equally across board.

So I disagree with some laws. I don't ~~disagree~~ disagree with murder, rape, child molestation, kidnapping, robbery, burglary, theft, custodial assault.

But what if that idiot out there searching for a rapist, put herself knowingly in a situation where she will be rape. Is it then rape? or what she had coming...

RANT TO RAVE

Or what if that idiot goes out there and try to set someone up for a crime and get himself or herself killed. Is it murder? or what she or he had coming...
See the saddest thing about this world and laws. Is, it's not divine, conditionalize. Those who are existing in fear either standing still or running around being a idealistic nuisance, monster, are the ones who are pulling the shots. I don't believe in drug laws. But in this country they exist. I believe in responsible drug use. So the conditionalization comes in... say, for instance, someone try to force another person against their will to purchase some drugs. Then that would be against the law. unlawful distribution of narcotic. I don't believe that such a industry should not be regulated. But if a person of their own free will purchase some narcotics for recreational ["RESPONSIBLE"] use then this would not be unlawful. But they would loose their privilege to recreational drug use if for example they failed to uphold their responsibility for paying their rent, feeding and clothing their kids, and so forth. See, those who exist in fear have no true respect for the pursuit of life, individual civilize opinion...
