And yes your right alot of cons dont ever stop their games trust me I see it all the time in here.

And I'm really sorry you tryed to help some one just to have them use the way he did. And I really understand why you dont trust any cons. But I promise you we ant all like that. Like me I dont want any Money or for any one to buy me any thing. I'm Not looking for any hand outs. All I'm looking for is some one to write and draw for. That will write me back and send me some photos every Now and then 😊 That all just friends.

Because I dont get any letters and it really sucks Not to have anyone to talk to..... The last letter I got was when the girl that calld me calio in the comments. But she fond some one else a year ago or will almost and No letters any more and this web Page hasent helped.

But any ways if you would like maybe to give me a chance for us just to be I would really like that. Because thats all I'm really looking for. And if you would like to write me where I'm at you can at
