Hello Princess,

I miss you and I love you too!!! IF you want to leave me little messages up here you can. It may take me just a little while to respond back because I only can get them sent to me every 2 weeks. But you still got to write me some-times Princess, because you can not type personal things up there. Who ever comes on my blog site can read every message that is left for me. And beside I would miss you drawing and coloring me some pictures. It's getting late so I'm going to end this. Be good and stay safe. I LOVE YOU and I MISS YOU PRINCESS.

LOVE ALWAYS Paddy

P.S.

You should receive a letter from me real soon. That if you haven't already got it yet. I'm sending it out today (3-4-13).

Love you!!!
