Dear Alice

Good morning!" Hope my comment finds you having a great day. I received your comment last night. Thank you very much for leaving your comment and for your help over at Cell-pal's. I'm going to make some changes in the future. I already received the print out and photos back. I received them last week. Thank you for all your time and help. Please take care and have a wonderful day.

In Peace + Love

Connie 😊
