In this book, my life is found
Described without a name
Without face or identity
But with aim and purpose

In this book, is my fame and
Disgrace without specificity
My blood, my tears, and my pain

In this book, is my hope, joy, and peace
My hell, my melas skin
And melas thinking and depression
My megalomania

In this book, is all of my humanity
All of human's humanity

In this book, "you are"

In this book ... pass the wisdom
Like you pass the joint
