buegrunon: Wow! Your very opinionated! I appreciate the harsh criticism, as it will only aid me in better understanding or modifying my beliefs by exposing the flukes and flaws in my thinking that I may have overlooked.

Sorry I didn't get back to you right away, I had moved units and am now in Huntsville and it took a minute for my mail to follow me...I just got this response tonight....I can see your a very emotional person.. If you dont mind my asking, what labels would you use to describe yourself? Communist? Liberal? Zionist? Atheist? Homosexual? It doesn't really matter, just trying to sort through the source of your views and anger.

Yeah, I'm a little past the ashamed feelings, I'm ashamed of alot of things I've done and still do in my life, but I dont feel ashamed for any views expressed in these articles. I guess I should if I was trying to fit into todays society. What a strange world we live in, eh? Someone like Kim Kardashian (not to point fingers) can freely be unashamed for doing absolutely anything on film for money and running through a never ending list of flings...other societal idols can be so strung out as lose everything when they had everything to lose, and not feel ashamed. But when you speak about God and Virtue, its so foreign nowadays that we should feel ashamed... It's a topsy turvy world aint it?

As for the whole finger pointing...we're the good guys... I guess that an inevitable consequence of having convictions. Its not unique to Christianity thats for sure! In faact, you may be able to substitute the word "communist" for "Christian" throughout this article and 'crusade' for 'revolution' and you'd be laying out the whole communist agenda as well. They aslo see the culture as being the tool of the current powers that be for manipulaing and controlling the great masses of people. Of course, they feel they have a better vision, a "god" if you will (without designating it by that term) and they, also are willing to resort to violence to bring it into being...Islam, Christianity...I guess if you believe in something strongly enough...well a corrally to that is that your gonna act on it, (or you dont really believe it!) check out some of their statements for yourself at revcom.us

Where does the anti-se, itism accusation come from? The way I see it, almost all the Christians in America at least, are the most pro-Israel supporters on the entire planet outside of Israel itself! Most Christians I meet still believe that teh Jews are God's chosen people. Most are the reason that the US consistently gives around $6 billion a year in aid and military aid to Isreal every year. Most certainly dont know that preachig Christianity in Israel is a prisonable offense!

As far as the prejudice against non-whites...etc...dont you get tired of whining about teh same old lies? I'm a catholic...if anything I'm a minority where I am...it's almost completely hispanics that are the Catholics around here...I even went out of my way to teach myself to read Spanish as most of the Chaplains Catholic material happens to come in Spanish. Of course...maybe its all an elaborate conspiracy to hide thge fact from what I have read it appears to have been a Jewish organization that was initially working with the Third Reich to isolate and identify Jews with "undesireable" genetic traits..ie, criminality, sexula deviancies, menatl reatrdation..etc..and this Jewish group would hand over the list to the nazis to weed out the weaker members of their Gene pool...ever erad up on that?

Yeah, I think Nazism is a seriously flawed idealogy. But sometimes I wnder if the Jewish people's only complaint with it was that they ended up being ensnared in the ever woidening net...maybe they would find it more palatable if they were the ones implementing it? Thoughts? Sure seems Danialla Weiss ibid was of that miϕnd set, no?

Eh, it'll all work out in the end. God will destroy the best laid plans of man when they go against His will.

Ha! so is there a lot of Bible bashers on this site? I can only sedd what I write and thye mail me the responses...probably pretty bad huh? Truthfully, aside from being a racist, I think my own people, white people, I think we're on the verge of annihalation because we have abandodoned God...just as the Jews of the first century dϕid...I dont belive in a master race. I think that once God departs from a land, and takes His Spirit from the souls of its people...its doomed at thjat point. I think any people can overcome our inherent defects with the Grace of God...Grace perects nature...any nature...

Well, bud, nice chatting with you, but I beter run, got me in this gnag renunciation program i, the mrning. Have a nice night though..I'll say a prayer for ya!
