Susan,

Thank you for writing and thanks for the google search.

CLEAR is one I've not heard of before so I'll call them REAL SOON.

As to your question about sending copies of other blogs, my answer is I think its okay. So now its up to you.

Who are you?

How'd you find out about BETWEEN THE BARS?

How many blogs are there?

Being who you are and writing to me as a person is MORE important than what you can find for me.

Always

buhogruwan,

what is buhooorunon? Is it your name,
or are they random letters. :)

Your idea of my picturing my daughter hurting herself is hurtful and I don't want her seeing me like that either. So thank you, its a powerfull reminder.

So who are you?

Are you in Europe now?

You can write me whenever you want.
