

page 1 to 2

3/14/13

we support as individuals & as a group, in what practical ways we can, systemic, societal, institutional, social, economic, political, & military aspects that facilitate social justice revolution, we oppose as individuals & as a group in what practical ways we can, systemic, societal, institutional, social, economic, political, & military aspects that oppose social justice revolution, all of this for the progress of humanity collectively & as individuals, without all of this humanity is stagnant & regressive, collectively & as individuals, it is extremely hard for me to see any holistic systemic, societal, institutional, social, economic, political, & military aspects, i think humanity may have lost holistic systemic, societal, institutional, social, economic, political, & military aspects, i as an individual long for a holistic life style, even though i can not picture what a holistic life for myself would be like, there needs to be a comprehensive safety net for humanity & the planet, too many people are being lost from the lack of a comprehensive safety net for humanity & the planet, a systemic, societal, institutional, social, economic, political, & or military approach that lacks a comprehensive safety net for humanity & the planet is wrong, the basis for a comprehensive safety net for humanity & the planet, is international revolutionary community, the crisis is a lack of a comprehensive safety net for humanity & the planet, the crisis is a absence of international revolutionary community as a basis for a comprehensive safety net for humanity & the planet.

page 2

3/14/13

post for <http://betweenthebars.org/blogs/1491>