

Is the sun is shining in your life?

wow! I finally got my desires:

the man I wanted

new job

I bought me that new home

I went on my dream vacation

I won the lottery

I received Christ

I had a baby when I couldn't

I am drug free

I am not selling drugs anymore

I am out the gang

I won my lawsuit

I got my record deal

My book was published

I am free from jail or prison

Where ever the sun may be shining in your life today, let no one put out your fire of cheerfulness. Not even your haters.

Rejoice I say - I rejoice
