I wanted to thank you for your opinions put forth concerning my posted ponderings on the Clay Mammoth.

I've decided to now do an essay on it, so, keep a watch for it and I look forward to your future contributions to the subject. No. We didn't "learn" our bipedalism. The change of our environment triggered it, and with lots and lots of trial and error, it happened. But, I'll leave all this for my essay, for now I just wanted to extend my thanks and gratitude to you for your comment.
