Ashley,

Your comments were filled with warmth and so very touching. You have ignited the spark of inspiration and thrilled me with delight. It is certainly gratifying that my work impacted you in such a passionate way. The world will benefit enormously from your convictions to, "make love more important in [your] life and spread it more to others. [I] want to display that love for all to see"! Just give your life in sacrificial service to the all of life and God is pleased. Make human hearts your alters, and burn your sacrifices with the fire of love. I am honored to be among the first to experience that love divine that emanates from your angel-like character.

Darryl
