

This was me acting silly so i made up this "song" to Justin Bieber's "Boyfriend". It's not finished nor do I think it's in order but i know that the lines written go where they are supposed to.

BLANKET(BOYFRIEND)

If I was your blanket
you would never let me go
have you wrapped so tight you would ~~never~~ never feel the cold I can be so comfortable anytime you want
If i was your blanket
you would never let me go
never let me go
never let me go

I'll let you drag me anywhere
all across the room
don't leave me behind yeah, you already know Take me outside when you chillin' with your bro'

Blanket, blanket
I love to be your blanket

YOU

I called you and you did not hear me
I wanted you
and you did not come for me I needed you
and you threw me away
I was crying
and you did not wipe away my tears
I was bleeding
and you left me to die
I was alone
and you did not comfort me

If you're real then realness is a lie If wanting you is right
then let me be wrong
If you are what i need I'd rather be numb
If crying shows my pain
then I'll be void of emotions
If my blood means to live and love
I died along time ago
if being alone is easier than I'd rather die alone..
