

CHOOSE, EVERYTHING, ANYTHING

choose to live choose to love choose to hate choose to anticipate everything that means anything everything that means nothing everything I lack to know everything I lack to have choose to breathe

choose to speak
choose to watch choose to sleep

anything that is wanted anything that is filled with regret anything worth forgiveness anything worth remembering

I HAVE

I have accomplished that which was impossible that which was hard that which was long over due

I have reached the goal which was unreachable the thought which was unthinkable the place which was unattainable

I have realized that i can do anything that i can reach any height that I can go any distance

I have regretted all the mistakes made needlessly all the words said in anger all the acts of insanity

I have become a new creation altogether a new thinker of my ways a new reason for me to live
