

H A P P I N E S S

Luminescent light mysteriously inhibits exhilaration achieving spiritual ambulation nursed by luxurian tears.
They race from the eyes
like soft morning dew drops from the stem of a black rose feeding life intimate crystals of jubilant pleasure.
Melodious wisdom embraces mournful minds
Caressing thoughts with peace.
A soft smile touched with a drop of love
will open the womb of a lonely soul.
Seduce my heart with the grace of light
so I can kiss the wind.
Clouds carry me away to lustrous innocence.
Romance my vision
lubricate my fears with joy
I yearn for the iridescence of hope while floating through a tranquil dream.
Though I reach
never do I taste the philosophy of my premonitions.
Shower me with your legend of intimacy
With the medallion of faith, patience and perseverance.
I pray
Calling upon you for help
OH HAPPINESS!

Submitted by:

Larry Rush #AM-2728
S.C.I. - Greene
175 Progress Drive
Waynesburg, PA 15370-8090