Jessica,

Truly you will always be someone I cherish.
You are a woman now, a mother even, but to me you'll always be my friend, that same girl I went to computer class with, that same girl who I secretly always had a crush on, but thought it would be weird if I ever made a move, so I began to see you as a sister, sometimes I wish things with us would have gone differently, but I would not trade in the truth of our friendship. I feel blessed to know you - You are family now and forever - Write me whenever Jess - I'm here -

Pesse
