10:12am. just been walking, waiting on legal mail to come, so I can get this letter out to secretary crews and the senator. I talked to my classification officer this morning about my visits, the heightened security ect. she said she's got to get with someone hire up. That was cab that left out this morning. He's throwing up blood. I hate that I'd gladly take his place. Not looking good. I'm fixing to work on some new stationary see's. He's always on my mind even if I don't mention him. I think about him throughout the day.

9:18am. Just finished a letter. Fixing to do some art work and then maybe another letter.

11:08am. I just finished visiting with a Christian volunteer that I haven't seen in 9 years. He's one of those few true Christians. One of those standing on the right hand side in Matthew 25:31-39 not those on the left verses 40-46.

He's a good guy. I really enjoyed talking to him. Well I wrote another letter, and a grievance. Not sure I'm going to file it. Back to the art work.

1:22pm. The guys are all out at Recreation. Pisses me off that I can't go out with everyone else. Tomorrow their going to take me out by myself. I'm not going to file these grievances. I'm going to wash clothes here shortly and call it a day. I out to recreation. Although I'll be by myself which is a waste of time and money, and all because of warden Reddish's unethical criminal conduct. But this is the dirty south where corruption and stupidity runs ever so rampidly. But welcome to the F.D.O.C. Well time to wash up wash clothes put the mail on the door and call it a day.
