

Rita!!

Thank you so much for your comments. I really appreciate it and it's great to hear from you. Plus, you're in Belgium! Wow! I just don't expect anyone from outside the country to be interested in prisoners in the U.S. You asked what a G/W/M is. It stands for Gay White Male. I'm not a woman!! OOPS! At least not physically...I am one at heart. I think a mistake was made in this life and I plan to be reborn female. Trust me, lots of people make that mistake and I've gotten mail addressed to "Ms. Kelly Jones" all my life.

You sound like a really cool person who has lived, and is living, a very interesting life. I would be very grateful to hear from you again. I loved your saying too. I hope people who read my posts like my quotes (or at least appreciate the fact that I put some in for fun). I love good quotes and I have a notebook full of them (usually they're a bit on the "saucy" side). :-)

Anyway, thanks again, and I really appreciate your support.

Love & Blessings,

kelly
