I do thank you for your comment on my poem called "Running" and how it's touching. I have been telling everybody about your company and even giving them my direct address to where they can get onto my blog and review my poetry that's posted.

maybe they'll spread the word about BTB and more people will be intrigued as to finding more (poets, writers, illustrators etc...) and make your company an amazing sensation on the world wide web.

Once I transfer I'll definitely inform staff members and members of the public who come to the prison about your company, your company is definitely something worth bragging about! Thank you!

Respectfully yours,
