

Well, I just was moved back to C-wing today. I suspect this was because I was writing up "too many" complaints about serious abuses of prisoners around me. Better than spending my time cussing out my neighbors. Hopefully it's quieter over here, so I can get back into my books & feed the brains of you readers with hungry minds

F.Y.I., I've not received any comments from anyone since 2 March, a comment urging Hiker to kill himself. I point this out as I suspect staff here are messing with my mail. I haven't received any mail for 3 weeks & that's weird.

If you all leave a comment, especially if you've helped me in any way, I will reply, either to chastise or thank you.

For now, I'm going to sleep. Y'all take care & be well,

Nate
