

By Jerome 'Hoagie' Coffey

'General Harriet Tubman'
a/k/a

matriarch/shero/warrior/revolutionary/sista-soul-jah... twelve years in solitary confinement general harriet tubman been my hope against oppression by oppressors.

matriarch/shero/warrior/revolutionary/sista-soul-jah...
fought institutionalize corporate enslavement by means of escaping the enslaved institution.

matriarch/shero/warrior/revolutionary/sista-soul-jah...
fought racism,
white supremacy,
capitalism,
imperialism,
classism,
and aristocrated predatory patriarch thugs who regulated the institutionalize corporate enslavement of African men, women, and children.

matriarch/shero/warrior/revolutionary/sista-soul-jah... through brave resistance as a guerrilla freedom fighter and self-determination. she went back to the oppressive plantations in south and liberated other guerrilla freedom fighters from oppressors.

matriarch/shero/warrior/revolutionary/sista-soul-jah... embarrassing draconian laws of the fugitive slave act with coded harmonious sounds (i.e. "go down, moses, way down in egypt's land tel! old ph.araoh, let my people go") the catch sounds was communication for liberation guerrilla freedom fighters on the plantation to escape tonight etc.

matriarch/shero/warrior/revolutionary/sista-soul-jah...

guerrilla freedom fighter john brown had it correct when he called her "general harriet tubman" indeed, she inspired me for twelve years in solitary confinement. I call her -- matriarch, shero, warrior, revolutionary, and sista-soul-jah.

In struggle
In solidarity
Stay alert
Stiff resistance
Hoagie