

UNAWARE

Descendants of kings and queens living an amerikkkan nightmare as fiends, loosing the battle like an insomniac chasing a dream NO JUSTICE! NO PEACE! - a cacophony of screams even w/Barack in office, it seems we need to kick the ass and elephant off our team We've been doing the house nigga lean pretending this is the vision of Dr. King or a republican thing when every 4 or 8 years they change the face of the scheme while the power remains like Spielberg - behind the scenes Let me take u back in time to when the trinity was truly divine I'm talking about control of the will, subconscious, and conscious mind when we were nurtured by nature, knowledge of self and kind like a woman - mother for the 1st time In the mountains they languished in caves while the suns' rays walked on the oceans waves millions of years before the son in the biblical days It was he who nature plagued that brought the baptisms in rage a crusade to make spiritual slaves committing crimes against humanity in white Jesus name I understand that you're afraid to question the way u were raise but how can u believe a story edited by King James?
History shows he was seriously deranged and had an affinity to use the guillotine to tame But if u seek u shall find the will written in hieroglyphics left behind the keys to mankind that influenced religions, holidays, symbolism's, myths, and signs In Genesis man can to exist after inhaling the breath to resist our enemies tactical changes always come w/a twist and the greatest security risk is the Black fist so they integrated the white girl w/a baking soda mix forcing motherhood to become a bitch in search of a fix and the saddest part is...we aint even aware of this shit!
