whats up Ma, its been a long time since i've heard from you. Congratulations on having a baby? you're so grown up now. I'm so proud of you that you finished school. No Ma I'm not mad at you for having some one else's baby. Things change and I'm ok with it. I knew from the begining it wasn't Playboy's kid I didn't feel a connection and I told him when he came to visit me. But I do wish you the best. you will always be part of our family, we have so much history. So whats your babies name? I want pictures. God bless you and your family. The Real Crazy:
