Just finished washing clothes.

I spent the day doing art and writing. Waiting on the shower now. Want get it until 7:30 & PM, then I'll watch survivor and go to sleep. I got up at 3am. there was talk about a dental fool coming up missing, which is what the shake down yesterday was about. And there was talk about them coming down here today. Never happened. They ran rec this morning, and canteen this afternoon about 1:30pm. Other than that it's been a typical day. I hope to get some mail tonight. Fixing to watch some news and wait on the shower.

Thursday May 2, 2013 4:53 PM. Just finished eating. I'm going to wash clothes and then bath. my water is messed up. Then plumer's are screwing the sink's up and then trying to charge us to fix them. other than that, it's been an uneventful day. I wrote a couple of letters did some art work, and that's about it. just another day.

hobby craft supplies come in any day. maybe next week. I should get my new razor next week as well. I'm first in the shower tonight as soon as I come back I'm going to sleep.

Saturday May 11, 2013 2:29 PM. Just sitting here mess ing around with some art. I haven't written in the journal in a week. I was actually thinking about stopping it. I got so side tracked with the art and reading. I've been in that Bible a lot lately, also been following along with these TV preachers. There's a couple of them that I actually like. And I've had a couple write me back. Well I heard last weekend that another death warrant was signed. Billy R. I don't know how to spell his last name. I don't know him either. I heard he's set for June. so two guy's are on death watch now, sad situation. I heard Elmer is set for May 29, Billy is set for some time in June. I went out to recreation on Wednesday. They still have me going out by myself. I heard Gary Alvord is at the hospital brain cancer and their expecting him to die any day now. He's been on death row longer than anyone in the U.S. either 38 or 39 years. They could never execute him because he's mentally ill. It was a waste of time and money leaving him here on the row. Buck is also up at medical. I heard he's in bad shape. His liver is messed up. I got a letter from my Dad the other day, he's still getting by. He just turned 66 on May 1, my mother will be up here next weekend, so I'm looking forward to seeing her. I finally got my water fixed yesterday. But my light switch broke Thursday, so now I'm trying to get that fixed. I exercised yesterday. Been writing some ministry. I did six bible studies yesterday just to send them back to the ministry. Told them don't send any more. I don't like to be led. When I study I let my studies take me where they take me.

Cause man will lead you wrong 9 times out of ten. man cannot be trusted.

Not even me, hell especially not me. I don't trust my damn self. Jeremiah 17:9

says it all. "The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure." Nope man's not to be trust cause you don't know what's in his heart. And lies will quickly come from his lips and spew deceit. Trust no one, suspect everyone, For today's Friend, Can be tomorrow's enemy.

Well I need to do some more art work. It's so hot in here, But back to work.

Sunday May 12, 2013 9:52am Happy mother's Day! I was sitting here watching a church show. This morning I wrote a piece called Earthly Riches just because of what happy go lucky wrote in a comment about being children of a King. The apostles and Christ wasn't chasing money, nor did they have or want earthly riches, yet today's Christian, all they care about is earthly riches. It's these preachers fault for misleading people. Well to pass the day I need to do some art and write some letters. Need to pray also.

But I feel like such a heel even asking for faith when you have mother's praying for children that are dying.

There was a woman on the CBS world news Friday whose adopted baby girl died, so sad. This life is so brutal. I really enjoyed seeing them three women and the little girl escape that house of horrors they endured for ten years.

That phone psychic told that poor woman on the Montel William show several years back that her daughter was dead. Yes that's what I thought to.

But I'd have never done no ruthless crap like that, telling some one something that I

I did not know, that would be so heart breaking just so I can boost my book sells. But hey, we're human and we are deceitful evil people! Jeremiah 17:9 "The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure." Well time to do some art work.

5:29 PM. Finished eating fixing to wash some clothes bath, and lay back and watch some TV. I didn't do a lot today. I did do a lot of praying and there was a lot of people praying for me. Well I'm going to call it a day and put this on the door.
