

RANT TO RAVE

[AND DOWN SHE GOES!]

So what if this type of female is a doctor, lawyer, prosecuting attorney, correctional official, etc, etc and you're not... what do you do??

And they have become radical, they will physically attack you if you slap them for their rude and insolent behavior, compelling you to then use force to protect yourself from physical injuries if you're courageous enough.

So in order for you to understand the circumstances of the situation you must first be properly inform.

When I was at Chatham Bay in 2009-10, the correctional officials tried to set me up to get rape by a Lakewood Hustler, who's a Nation of Islam, as well. See D-LOC, Jame L. is a serial rapist. That's searching for help to correct his deviant sexual behavior. The D.O.C. system is broke. So he turn to the only help that is available. So I got an infraction for a WAC violation because he did the only thing he knew. But I wasn't going to be rape by this muttha fucka. Soon as I seen what was going down I filled my cup up with hot water from the cell sink. He was going to look like Freddy. So, some months later he wind up in a cell next to me. And called me to see what I was in the whole for and to try to humiliate me. So in the mist of me teaching him a lesson on self humiliation I did as what he suggest and began to speak really loud. It shot pass his head as most of my lesson do with these kind of individuals. So low and behold I have these clo have me yelling at the top of my lungs when I speak to them. This practice follow me from CICC to WSP.

I don't mean to loose you with what I say next but it's no other way around it. If you understand Hypnotism then you may grasp this. She have this uncanny ability to manipulate man into doing what she wish.

So she got off! Using D-LOC, The Nation Tactics, she said something to me during mourning pill line with clo Casey W. and nurse Susan with her. I was standing at the door waiting to get my breakfast sack... Now, you got to understand. This is my life! So, I knew what she and another female staff member was up to. So I took the necessary step. I first wrote a prayer on a piece of paper with a 5 point star at its top left hand corner and tape it above the top corner of my cell door. Then I change my diet to a more religiously secure diet. Now, they didn't want to put me on this kosher diet for nothing at all. So, I finally got on the kosher diet, and I felt her supernatural pull, pulling me to a certain destination at my door. So, I did everything I knew what to do and gave in. I found myself at this door speaking loud when I knew she could hear me, being her victim. Then it happen. One blow for man. Susan said she can hear you because I can hear you. True healthy sentiment for man. A victim of a witch, a influential women, a powerful women. Standing behind her was a man. A second blow for man. Masculine authority to support this true honest sentiment. See I wasn't sure I defeated her until the next day, when she said something to me. It had no effect on me at all. At this point you win them. They become yours because if she stay out their and be with some other guy she become sick.

But, I'm a prisoner and she's a correctional officers so ain't nothing going down their.

I get to watch her get sick and infect the male clo's around her, and laugh my *ss off...

So lets just say I pull her, which I add will not occur. What do I do? Get what I can out of her, have her give up her job... NO... That's taking unnecessary. 1) From the state and 2) from her... To come into her life when she's financially secure and take away her security is to verify to women's on a subconscious level that the only thing mans in this world want to do is use and abuse them. It's time for comprehensive social reform. This piece needed to be written before the ITI's piece. We mans must be smarter and wiser.

She'll just have to move on with her life. She's lost with a smile on her face.

A Conscious Reflection
ON LIFE.
