

RANT TO RAVE

[CONSCIOUS REFLECTION]

How can we create true comprehensive boundaries for a household, a society when we fail to have the skills to create true comprehensible boundaries for ourself. So. How do we hold ourselves accountable when we violate those boundaries without being self-abusive. How do we prevent others from manipulating us into violating our boundaries... If we fail to know the answer to this conundrum then we fail to know the answer to this conundrum on a social level. People often push their chauvinistic behavior on others. But this is not comprehensive boundary its totalitarianism, dictatorship, etc, etc....

So the question still remain...
Do I know me and myself. Am I ready for love or just sex?
So many people are considering Plan B as a major mile stone for women. But in fact it's a major mile stone for men as well... We man can also have a unwanted pregnancy in a relationship. We man can engage in riskier sex. I.e. Having unprotected sex, Risking pregnancy...
Now we too can run to the store for the Plan B.
Look Honey. I love you! But I'm not ready to be a father, I
So you'll just have to wait. TAKE THIS... It's Plan B.

OZZY! You're a Rock God!
I often wonder the same. Is God dead!
But He Always show me He's Alive and well.
It's Our sorrow That make us say enough is enough... Good BYE, Not our ANGER..!

[And. Down SHE GOES!]

I defeated Her...
It took me sometime but she fell with a smile on her face,
Not knowing she been defeated...
When you look up the word bitch one of the definition is a woman regarded as bad-tempered, malicious, etc.
When you look up the word witch one of the definition is a woman thought to have supernatural power as by a compact with evil spirits.
When I was young I was taught that they were the same individuals.
They would tell me they're patricidal. In fact, you see this practice of witchcraft is practice every day. They call this demasculating man. Their are numerous of ways that this is done. The most famous way is to verbally assaulting man. It has its effect. They have become more aggressive in this practice of witchery. By physically attacking and killing man or disfiguring them.
Putting poison in man's food, using insect to infect ones body which create hypertension, heart problems, etc, molesting little boys turning them into rapist when their older are some of their most famous practice. Their second is playing on mans and public sentiment as to portray as the victim turning their victim into the assailant.
The sadest thing is all the man they have fighting for their patricidal cause. Knowing that public sentiment look bad on slapping a female or physically dominating a tease.
I know this seems far-fetched but when you live this life day in and day out it don't seem that far-fetched at all.
