

Chapter VI

As I reported in Chapter V of the "Madness Journals" some of the real hard-chargers here were able to meet with State Representative Ben Swan. I also told you how Captain Cowardly, Lt. Whirlwind, and Director Plus Size were unhappy to the point where Cowardly said, "We don't appreciate your 'grandstanding' in there. Take this is a warning." He then told a 68 year old, recipient of the Bronze Star and Purple Heart, who also presented topics to Rep. Swan to, "Be Careful." Now you know why he is Captain "Cowardly". The threats of retaliation did not end there.

The next morning (05/24) Deputy I have a Dream, Deputy Denied-Oh, Director Plus Size, and Captain Cowardly all went to the cell of my friend who is a combat hero (same guy who was awarded the Bronze Star w/ "V" for Valor and Purple Heart) and told him that his service and shrapnel wounds do not assure him such free speech. Of course my friend, a warrior, told them what they could do with their opinions and madness.

The same day they went to his cell they called me over to Deputy I have a Dream's office. Present were Deputy Dream, Deputy Denied-Oh, and Captain Cowardly. The message was clear: "Shut my motuh or there is gonna be trouble." I defended myself, with dignity and honor, but you can't talk to the Fox about the killing in the chicken coop. They made it be known that they run this shithole and I let it be known that I would not even be at the meeting but for the fact that there was a big ass razor wire fence around this place. I was in the "Den of Iniquity", forced to sit in the "Office of Ill Repute". The gestapo had me surrounded, the ovens were warm, and I told them, point blank, I ain't going in willingly: your gonna have to shoot me!

 At the end of this Meeting of the Macbre Deputy Dream actually asked me "What is it that you want." I almost asked him to unlock the front gate but I would not even want such a favor from him. What I did do was laugh as I felt it insane. Who did he think I was? one of his stockholm syndrome inmate police force? He was sadly mistaken. I told him I wanted to go to the HSU and see my dear friends Billy B. and Frankie S. He said, "Put it in writing." What a joke! Why would I have to write him if he is sitting right in front of me? As I keep telling you = MADNESS!

I am calling in the calvary on this one. I have my close supporters calling and emailing Ben Swan. I have my legal counsel on notice that that very real retaliation is brewing. I will ask all my readers to please do me a favor and make some phone calls or send some emails on this situation. Here is some contact information;

State Representative Benjamin Swan (413) 739-8547 or (617) 722-2680
Benjamin.Swan@MAhouse.gov

Shayvonne Jackson - Aide to Ben Swan (413) 739-8547

MCI Shirley Superintendent Kelly Ryan (978) 425-4341
karyan@doc.state.ma.us

Let them know you support free speech and are against the "Madness" that diminished public safety.