RE: BLOG POST INFORMATION SHARED

Dear Concern Reader:

As I sit typing this information, I can now acknowledge that history does in fact truly repeat itself to a full course one-hundred-and-sixty-degree.

When President Lincon freed the [Slaves], the freed Slaves had to carry upon their persons at all times the legal papers substantiating that the Slave was in fact actually free and legally able to move about the Country of North America.

Now you have modern day Slaves in the California State penal system walking around the prison, that are receiving legal documentation in affirmation as to the good old Master setting them free to move about the Country of North America once again.

I'm awaiting the arrival of my freedom papers from good old master myself, and I guess I should be thankful that master has seen fit, and being grateful enough to set us free from the concrete plantation.

And I should acknowledge the fact, that good old Master, has been nothen but good to Black folks since the good old white folks stole Blacks from the Country of Africa. So I just want to say, thank you Master for all use done for us Black folks since we's was stolen from Africa, brought to America, and subjected to oppression and racism that still exist to this day, a never ending Black holocaust.

Sincerly
