I would like to personally take the time out to thank you for responding to my poetry "Bad 2 worse" your words were uplifting and encouraging to keep on writing.

I have been writing poetry since 2003 I have poetry that I'm trying to get published called "In the mind of unseen talent," some of the poetry on my blog came from this title.

I have 6 editions under that title 1) Religious, 2) Baby momma drama, 3) Pain within, 4) love and females, 5) think about that, and 6) pride and joy.

#3 is poetry about me, #5 is poetry about things to make you think (prison etc.) #6 is poetry about my mom and my son.

I'm currently working on my next book under the "In the mind of unseen talent" title but it's part 2 "The Boogie chronicles", part 3 "The Boogie Files" will soon follow after that.

I write about anything, if a topic floats across my mind I write it down, I express myself better on paper and I write down my feelings, thoughts emotions. I try to write about me and my experiences, but in the Boogie chronicles I have been thinking outside the box, and elaborating on more things that can
