Monday May 20, 2013 5:03am just waiting on breakfast listening to my music. I'm really tired and I got a lot of sleep. I went to sleep before 7pm and didn't get up until 7am. I woke up at 2am but laid there until I fell asleep. I've got a couple of pastors to write this morning and some art work to do, just see how everything else unfolds.

9:46am. Wrote Anne and 2 churches which seems to be a waste of time, but try and try again. Well Elmer has 9 days to live. I seen something on capital punishment this morning saying Marshall Gore is set for execution on 6/24/13 at 6PM.

10:30am. As I was writing the chaplain came by and I've been standing there talking to him about 40 minutes. We had a good conversation. I enjoy talking to him. He's a really good guy. We just talked about some bible difficulties and my faith and the bible. Well I'm going to lay back and do a little bit of reading. And then write or do some art work.

1:58pm. Been sitting here reading a book for the past couple of hours. The Encyclopedia of Bible Difficulties. I need to exercise I keep saying it but not doing it. I've put the depression behind me, but these warrants and executions just put me in a very bad place. So where near that of the men and their families who are going through the machinery of death, a merciless machine that spits out the dead bodies of men and women in and under the fraudulent concept of justice. There's no justice in exchanging death for death. But we are a sick people who like to exchange evil for evil.

3:15 PM The mp3 man just came through picking up the players. I hope he don't load the music and gets them back to us fast. He's had about holding it 4 hours. I just cleaned the floor up and was fixing to do some pushups. It's so damn hot in here. I hate the summer months! I'd love it if I was on the beach.

4:13 PM They brought lunch no dinner. I gave it away. I can't eat that patty. I'm making a beans, rice and fish. It comes to just over $3.00 and it's a pretty good meal. Still waiting on the mp3 man. I'm going to mess around with some art.

4:47 PM Got the player back, listening to my music, trying to figure out what to do next. Need to exercise. Keep saying it just isn't getting it done.

5:44 PM Well I did a little exercise session just push ups and cardio. I see a tornado hit Oklahoma City. I hope everyone there is okay. There's too much pain and anguish in this world. Way too much suffering. Well I'm going to wash clothes and then wait on the shower to get started. I'm pouring sweat.

Tuesday May 21, 2013 7:31 AM. Just been writing a letter to a Christian organization. Got up at 4 AM. Was watching the news. Sad situation in Oklahoma. So many dead and children at that life so unjust! I'm glad my mom's down here and not out in Oklahoma. Well I'm going to spend the morning writing, may do some art work later on. And exercise. I should be going to the property room so I can put some stuff on the front gate for my mom to pick up. I also have some stuff that I need to mail out. I'm going to do some.

reading later on in this book on Bible Difficulties. Right now back to writing.

2:53 PM. Just sitting here doing art work. I was reading earlier that book on the bible. It's pretty interesting. The guy's went to rec but came back in early because of lightning. I hope to get rec some time this week. I'm getting ready to go watch this church program, see what I do from there.

4:55 PM Fixing to wash clothes and lay down and call it a day. Just another day on the row. Wednesday May 22, 2013 5:34 am. I slept in, I did not get up till 5am. I'm waiting on breakfast which is also late. I'm going to do some writing here in a bit. That's what I'll do this morning.

3:25 PM. spent the day messing with art, did some reading in this Christian book which inspired me to write "salvation is not free." I'm sure to get a lot of flake for that. But it's the truth and it's backed up and supported with scripture. still haven't got my light fixed and it's been over 2 weeks. Right now I'm waiting on dinner, should be here about 4:30 then shower's at 6:30 and then bed. I'll be glad to hit the bed and call it a day. For some reason I'm tired.

Thursday May 23, 2013 9:02 am just been doing some writing. wrote brother Otto and two other letters. Heard that Gary Alvord died the other day. He's been here right at 40 years. My Dad's over at RMC Lake Butler dealing with some type of medical problems. Also word is he got into a fight and got beat up. 66 year's old in a wheel chair and someone's jumping on him. messed up place. The guy down the hall he doesn't want off death row. He wants to be killed Cause he doesn't want to live out there. He's 67. Well I'm going to do some more writing and then some art. Working on some new stationary. It's coming out nice.

12:19PM. They called rec so I may get to go out today. I hope so, it's a nice day out there. Plus I need some fresh air and sun.

3:39PM. I had a nice time out there. Wish I could go out with everyone else. One of the old men whose 69. Can't go out, because there's a 40+ year old guy out there bullying him. It pisses me OFF. IF I could go out with them, I'd stop it or beat his ass. That's straight bitch action! picking on some one who can't or won't defend themselves. so now the old man can't go to recreation. I've been thinking about it since he told me. I knew something was up, cause he hadn't been out in 2 weeks. so when everyone went out he confided in me, said the guy slapped him in the head and has done it 3 times so far. Last time he said he seen stars he looked over and the officers were laughing about it. Damn that pisses me OFF! "I hate bullies!" well I've got to wash clothes, bath, and canteen may show up. And dinner will be here shortly.

5:25PM. Canteen came I just washed clothes getting ready to bath and call it a day, and put my mail on the door.
