On behalf of myself, and everyone else who finds themselves in my situation, I'd like to express my gratitude to you, and everyone else who helps, for uploading everything we've sent in for submission. Like many serving time, I've lost contact with just about everyone I've ever known, family included, which has left me virtually alone. In recent years, I began to reach out, searching for a way to become the man I wanted to be, rather than allowing myself to be defined by past accusations, whether true or not. In so doing, I've discovered that there are some truly wonderful, compassionate people out there in the world, people such as yourself who take their time in an attempt to relay my thoughts from in here to the people out there. Again, to you and everyone out there volunteering their time, thank you from the bottom of my heart.

As always, if you, or anyone else, has anything they wish to share, you can do so, either by leaving a response online, or by sending me a snail mail to the following address:
