

Secularism vs. Shiite Islam

Most Americans are probably unaware of the atrocities being committed throughout the world in their name and with their tax-dollars. Most never probably stop to consider the actions of Americans foreign policy in places like...Syria, of all places.

For instance, for some time America has been calling for the toppling of the legitimate government of Syria, led by President Bashar Assad. Assad and his regime are an offshoot of Shiite Islam known as Alawites. The forces attempting to topple him, with US coaching, cheerleading, and of course covert weapons and monetary support are Sunni Muslims. Ironically, most terrorists are of the Sunni Islam 'flavor'. In fact, all of the 9-11 hijackers were Sunni Muslims. Most probably Wahabi Sunni Islam, which is the predominant ideology of Saudi Arabia. More troubling is that the Sunni rebel commander of the rebels has recently sworn allegiance to who? Yep--Al-Qaeda! Ha! You can't make this stuff up! So here we have an American president aiding and abetting the cause of Al-Qaeda affiliates against the only force that has consistently opposed them in the region...the Shiites.

The American media is a farce. It spews the same biased secularist party line that the biased Washington secularists spew. If America doesn't have a state run and controlled media, well, I don't know what you would call it, or what is else it would look like other than what we have. It may not be officially an arm of Washington's government, but it sure advances the same agenda.

It's not surprising though. America funded and abetted the creation of the Sunni Taliban (supposedly to fight the ~~Muslims~~ Communists) of course, Osama bin Laden was a Wahabi Sunni Muslim from America's staunch sell out "Muslim" nation Saudi Arabia.

Yet despite all of this I keep reading in the mainstream press how much of a luny Assad is as he thinks that a US/Israel/ Sunni Arabian conspiracy is advancing and supporting the cause of the terroristic rebels. But how crazy is it, REALLY? If you think it would be 'crazy' to believe that the US, Israel, and Saudi Arabia along with Pakistan shaped and molded the creation of the Taliban in Pakistani Madrasas...well oops...that actually happened. If you think that during the Iran-Iraq war that lasted decades, that it would be a conspiracy to believe that ten same powers would have aided Iraq with untold weapons and intelligence info...oops well, that actually happened too! Of course, the most glaringly obvious evidence for the 'crazy' conspiracy theory is of course, the undeniable statements coming from the White House about how Assad must go... how the American Secretary of State is meeting with Russia to remove Assad from power, or officially to "settle the civil war in Syria", maybe such a conspiracy looks all too 'crazy' when Israel, of all nations, aids the cause of the rebels by sending bombers into Syrian Territory to bomb government forces, (of course to stop weapons from reaching Hezbollah) who, incidentally is fighting the rebels. We could go on...the rebels being allowed to stage attacks from American ally Turkey's territory, etc...

But aside from all the obvious, most people must ask, why does America, or more actually, it's dictators, so support the war of attrition against teh Shhites across the region, and, more acurrately, world?

Washington likes to deceive the world that it has no agenda, and is for such wonderful concepts as 'freedom' and 'equality' etc... But really, Americas secualr agenda has everything to do with erasing God from the minds of the people worldwide.

2 Thessalonians 2 realtes the characteristics that the anti-Christ would have when he arrived. not only would he exalt himself above God, but above "everything that is CALLED GOD or is WORSHIPPED" Religion period. The secualrist governmnets of the West have an absolute need to rewrite the standards of right and wrong to suit themselves, regardless of what any religion says. Se cualrist governments espouse some mythical policy of 'tolerance' except when it comes to a belief other than their own, in which case, well see the situation in Syria? Maybe you sgpuld take a look in Americas gulag system and seee some of th eviews of legitimate dissidents that espouse views opposing the party line, then ask yourself why Constitutional Rights and 'liberties don't apply to them. In fact, are Secular dictators will break every law on the books to suppress and control them. Washington espouses such views as 'tolerance', but yet, public education in America is COMPULSORY. Sure there are private schools, but even then they can't reach the sheer volume of pupils that the governmnet taxpayer funded COMPULSORY re-education camps that wshington runs, with the aid of such illustrious figures as Bill Ayers, the Communist terrorist advisng the DOE curriculum. What was really the differene ewith the brainwshing camps of the Soviets? Or how about Hitlers line when arguing with Dissidents...when he would abruptly blurt out..."Hey I don't know why I argue with you...right now, your kids are being indoctrinated in my thoughts in my schools...your arguments will die with you" Almost sounds like...
HERE!

AS for me, I'm not a Muslim, and I don't espouse Shiite theology, although I have studied it ad it definately has some strong points over the terroristic Sunnis. I just hope that the Shiites can hold out aganst the American dominated onslaught that they may be experiencing for some time to come. I know one thing for sure, we probably won't be able to count on the morlity of the American public to oppose unrighteousness any time soon.
