

Jolly fufon

Thank you for your kind words concerning my poem "Live". I also like this poem, It's one of my favorites. It's a step by step guide of my time in prison. Being in prison for 12 years with 12 more years to go has changed me. Mostly for the better, I no longer use drugs or drink alcohol and my way of thinking isn't as negative but my heart has hardened. I struggle through each day trying to find my humanity in a dark, carnival house of mirrors. "my face hurts" Yet I still go on because I know that being sober is a small portion of truly living. I don't want to get out of prison bitter and cynical. Thank you again and I appreciate you taking time out of your life to let me know I'm not alone.

Roland 5/24/13

Here's another poem you might enjoy

- Abyss -

There's an emptiness

inside of me

I've tried to fill with

Love and drugs

Sex and hate

Books and writing

I have come to the conclusion

they have made me feel more empty.

Roland 8/16/12