Lil Bit i really dont know what to say.
I know who you are. And I have known exactly who you, v been since about two or three days after my last blog to you. And I still dont know what to say .After reading your new reply...

Furst I'm glad your happily married to a good guy and have a good life. And I hope after you read this you'll still want to write and try us being friends again

And if you still want a memory of us back then I can tell you alot of them.
But I dont think thay would be appropriate on here. But the furst time I kissed was at the strawberry festible. And the furst time I ever told you I LOVED YOU was at the bassball feild by your sisters house whan I was taking you hame one night...

And trust me out of every one I have ever known you are one out of three people that dont ever need to be scared of me.. And i mite git pissed off but that something every one dose right ..

But I reay want you to know I never wanted to hurt you .And I'm sorry I did. I was in some trubel And a cop friend of my dads told him thay was going to arrast me and befor i know it i was in missippi getten on a buss to michegan with a backpack with maybe five outfets and $30.00 dollers to my name. And I did come back about 8months latter when I saved up enough money.. Because i missed you more then any thing and I was hoping i could gat you to come back with me. But people told me you didnt want any thing to do with me and that you had some one else so i left and ant been back. I really never wanted to hurt you.. Hell you was my furst tru LOVE. And if i could go back and change it i would. BUT THATS WHY I LEFT I really hope you understand it had nothing to do with me not wanting you I promise Thats why I'm having problems writting this letter..
And as for the stuff you need to get off you chest whats up? theres mine. And you know I;m not the smortist but the times to?? do you get to see him??? And what dus he look like???

I have fond that out the hard way. more then one time..

BUT I HOPE AFTER READING THIS YOU STILL WANT TO WRITE ME AND BE FRIENDS OK. OH and if at any time you wite somthing on there and
