

LOST

what is this lost life I try to share.????
But a lost life of a lost soul..
And a broken home
With a doped out mom and a doped out dad.
And then there you a doped out son lost to a family never to be fond.
So you say crime is the way.
So you do alittle of this and alittle of that just trying to fet in....
But you dont git what you want not even what you long for....
Because you dont even know what you long for....
and then you find her and you dont know what to do you never felt like this !!!
And some tills you its love
what is that you dont know even the word it was never sead where you'r from...
But she's so sweet and fine ...
But its already done remember you went to crime....
But you stay as long as you can...
Because you even love the way she holds your hand.
And then one night .. like a bad dream its taken from you.
And then your really lost
But one leds to to some thing else and life move even when some times you wish it would end .
So now what do you have????????????????????????????????????
Just a cold lonely cell
With no one even to write
Because you'v been a f@#k up all your life
