THE JEFF PROBT SHOW

Recently, in discussing his show cancellation Probt posed the rhetorical question: how can there not be an audience for a show like this [highlighting] spotlighting] every day peoples extra ordinary lives.

This blogger postulate this apparent viable response.

This is no longer the breezy America of Phil Donahue show where all open minds (not only Left and Right sides) were vigorously engaged, and the audience morphed into - the real Host-Interviewer.

Indeed, MSNBC fired Donahue in 2002, for his anti-Iraq war views.

This is the New America of ABC THEVIEW.COM "Hot Topics"; replicated ad infinitum; of FOX AMERICAN IDOL—Simon Cowell, whom was recently stoned with boiled eggs in London; of Rush and Hannity; of gangsta rap; of the divisive American House and Senate. And don't forget the semi-Nal Jerry Springer Show.

This is the New "Hot Issues" burn and slash leave no prisoners behind United States of America.

And!! NBC THE VOICE"com offers a glimmer of keeping hope alive [the nice guy/girl can win!!]
