Saturday June 1, 2013 12:48pm. Just finished bathing, washed clothes and worked out. I wrote two letters this morning. And now just trying to stay cool. It's warm in here. I've got some art work that I need to do. Which I'm fixing to get to work on. 5:21PM. It's so hot in here. I did some art, wrote 2 cards now I'm fixing to lay down and call it a day. Watch the rest of the race, the world news and then go to bed.

Sunday June 2, 2013 4:50 am, writing on breakfast. After I eat I'm going to work, then bath and get ready for my visit. This will probably be the last time I see mom until sept or oct.

I woke up this morning and I have ants coming out of the back wall, so I had to seal that up. I'm going to have to try to find something that ants don't like so I can seal them hole up better. Their coming in where the walls are pulling away from the foundation.

3:54PM. Just finished a letter to Anne. I couldn't finish it this morning. I had to try to get rid of ants. I didn't even work out. I had a nice visit with mom. This is really nice getting to see her. I haven't seen her this much since 1989. I need to write a letter.

Monday June 3, 2013 7:59am. Been up since 3am. cleaned everything up. wrote a letter to a Christian in Jacksonville. I've got a lot of other letters to write. I'm going to try to get true Christians (those who haven't been infected with the seeds of Satan) out here protesting against the death penalty. I feel that this is what I'm suppose to be doing. Capital punishment is an evil act. It needs to be stopped for the only thing it accomplishes is exchanging evil for evil. And as we know evil breeds evil violence breeds violence.

10:13am. wrote another letter. I'm going to mount some major protest out here during these executions. Well getting ready to work out. I gave my pancakes away this morning and I'm giving my lunch tray away. Time to get back in shape.

11:40am That was a really good work out. They called rec for everyone else. I still don't get to go.

I'm going to do a little something else later. Cardio of some kind. we don't have hot water, so I'm holding off to wash clothes and bath. Hopefully they will get the water fixed.

Been doing art work, a picture for a friend. The hot water is back on, so I'll be washing clothes here shortly. I just finished eating dinner. I'm fixing to work out again. Get another good sweat in so time to get to it.

Tuesday June 4, 2013 11:08 AM. Well I got up at 4: AM had to go to the doctor at 7:00 AM for my prozac renewal. I was out there until 10 AM. The doctor didn't show up until 8 AM. Then I seen MR. Byrd. We talked. Then I went to the property room and mailed a drawing. Got back in this heat box at 10 AM. I've got to work out here shortly. There was a female officer in the mail control room, and she was up in his face saying mother F—er you don't know who the F— I am. And it was MF. This and MF that. For 5 minutes she cussed him out and degraded him. And they think this is okay. She's a Sgt. and violated every rule under 33-208.002. And if that guy would have hit her or killed her, then he would have been wrong. It's that type of abuse that ends in a violent situation. This is why we need personalized audio and video cameras on staff. To keep idiots from endangering the safety of these institutions. But that's exactly what she did, jeopardized the safety of herself and the security of this institution. If she had a problem with him, she should have wrote a DR. and been done with it. Well I'm going to set up for this workout.

2:43 PM. I had a then washed clothes laying here listening to some one really good workout and bathed. Now just listening to music. I'm writing here in listening to else's music. He I'll get up around 9:30 PM and watch the Miami Heat play in the NBA Finals. and go to sleep when its over. Billy is down to six days to live and want see the NBA Finals.

Friday June 7, 2013 6:26am. I got up at 4:30am I only watched the first half of the game. 11:30 PM is just too late. It would mess the rest of this day up. I'm hoping they will take me to rec. I've got a few things to do this morning writing, art. So I'm going to get to a letter to Dina and then go from there.

3:19PM. I went out to rec by myself as always. I hate going out by myself. But I worked out, doing pull ups dips and ran. After I eat dinner I'll wash clothes. we have showers tonight. and I'm tired and will night's sleep.

I wrote a pastor and a couple of churches in this area to try to get these executions protested. Here I'm using some of my new stationary that I drew about 3 weeks ago. I've got some other art work that I need to get done. But I've got four other churches that I need to write. So I need to clean the floor and then bath ect.

Sunday June 9, 2013 7:22am. Been up since 3:30 wrote a couple of churches about protesting the death penalty here in Florida. still have a couple more to write later. Going to get ready for my visit here shortly. Cell's already cleaned up. I'm sore from the past couple of days of working out. I'll be taking today off. Billy is down to 3 days to live. Gore has 20 more days. And so far that we know of no other warrants have been signed. And hopefully no more will be signed. That's wishful thinking. Guess I'll start another letter to another church.

3:19 PM. Had a really nice visit with mom. I love her with all my heart! It's nice to get out there and just socialize. It's like having 6 hours of freedom. Hoping to get my recreation back here soon. Well I've got to do some writing. Couple more churches a card to my mom. Need to do some art work, Got a card I need to get finished. Also want to start some new stationary this week. I've got a lot to do this week trying to get these churches organized into coming out here protesting, which I need to get to right now.

4:30 PM. Finished a card to mom, started a letter but I'm fixing to lay back and call it a day. Miami plays tonight, but I've got a lot to do tomorrow, so I don't know if I'll watch it. Tomorrow's more important than watching T.V. tonight, so that's a day.
