Hello viewers and friends,

I just wanted to tell everyone, hello. Apologize that I haven't posted nothing lately. Even though I don't get no respond from my writing. In my heart I know it has inspired you all. I want you to know I feel a strong connection with my viewers. I really care about you all.

I know I been promising to have part 3 ready soon. It will be real soon. Well I have to go for now. All my viewers and friends be encouraged. Just know you have a friend in Pulaski State Prison that loves you all.

Sincerely,
Jennifer Johnson
