

APRIL 28?

Hey Y'all,

Thank you so much for your kind + supportive comments. I am very grateful to you both.

I'm not sure if I can agree that I'm positive. I've felt like I've been cursed for years. I'm trying to get over that, but bad things just keep happening. I am still grateful to both of you.

I have tried connecting with various help groups for prisoners + for the most part they are worthless. In any case, I do what I can, I'm just getting burned out.

Didn't I read that both of you are from Belgium? Do you know each other? I'd love to leave this country when I get out 'cause even when you leave prison they have you on "supervised release" for years + make your life impossible.

Hugs to both,
