

Courtney

Thank you for your forgiveness. I'll never take you or your forgiveness for granted. What you consider bubbling I call it a blessing. If you were to write the same sentence over and over. I'd still cherish it because it came from you.

When you lived in H.B. in 2007. Misty wrote me a letter and she said you were smart and going places. I am proud of you that you are following your dream and becoming a marine biologist.

Misty did do a great job raising you and Casey. I am happy you can say you had a normal childhood. It's a beautiful feeling knowing you're loved by family and friends.

I can't explain how much it means to me that you feel comfortable writing to me. It was cathartic reading "You're not some monster, You're my father... Your blood runs through my veins. Courtney at times I let my guilt and shame turn into self-loathing because of the way I treated my children.

That is exciting that Misty is expecting. I'm happy for her. I know she did a great job raising you and Casey. I know she is looking forward to doing certain things different as a mother.

I would love to see you and look forward to the day we can visit...
