Monday June 17, 2013 12:18 PM. Just finished working out and it was a good one. I got up at 4am. started reading the bible and writing an essay by 5am. took 3 hours to write it. then wrote a legal letter and a letter to my mom. They called rec a few minutes ago, but I don't get to go out, so I'll wash clothes bath and write a letter or two to some local churches and finish up a card.

6:02 PM. just waiting on showers now. I wrote 2 more churches about protesting these executions. It's hot in here. I'm really tired. Ready to get this shower and go to sleep. was a productive day.

Tuesday June 18, 2013 10:11 am been writing churches to try to organize these protest. I'm getting ready to work out here in just a few minutes. Damn these executions need to be stopped!! The guy over there now. I don't really like him. when I was fighting against the death penalty in 2004, he wrote something on the back of a letter that I had sent around for people to read, it was a letter to the Governor, and he made a joke. I bet it aint so damn funny now. But I still don't want to see satan's machinery of death killing him. I remember when he did that it pissed me off. I remember what it said "Help me Mrs Wiley help me!!" she was the psychologist. Here I am fighting to change this corrupt evil inhuman unsivilized killing machine, and he wants to joke about it, sit around and watch that idiot box (TV). And it gets to me that guys sit around and do nothing, watch TV, play games. They got a voice they got time, speak up and be heard. For you are either part of the problem or part of the solution. And silence is problematic!!" I got a headache thinking about it. I'm going to workout then write a few more churches, 1:56 PM. Had a good workout. The mp3 man got my player about an hour ago. I'll get 5 new songs. I've still got to wash clothes and bath. It's just so hot in here right now.

Crunches. After I eat lunch I'm going to workout. Canteen may come today, its suppose to. I don't really have anything coming that I want. Just food to make meals out of. Well Marshall Gore has 5 days left to live.

going to bath wash clothes and then go from there.

Sunday June 23, 2013 5:36 am. I been up since 3:30. And first thought was OF that 8 year old little girl that was killed yesterday. just absolutely sickening. I get so pissed OFF thinking about it.

10:12 am. just finished to replies and wrote a couple of cards. Fixing to workout. Trying to keep my mind OFF OF that little girl and what I'd like to do to that idiot that killed her. and just like that stupid moron that killed that little girl on the way home from school several years ago and got life in prison for it. this idiot will wind up with life. But that's good because he will have people after him and never be able to live in population. He will have to be in a cell by his self for the rest of his life. But if I had it my way he would get a leather strap across his ass every day for the rest of his life. Well I need to stop thinking about that. Gore has one day left to live.

12:11 PM. just finished working out. I had a good one. Need to wash clothes here shortly then bath and write a church I need to write a couple more letters.

4:43 PM. just finished eating. was watching the race Indy cars. Gore has just over 24 hours left to live. I hope theres alot OF protestors out there tomorrow. Really need the whole road lined up with protestors. And people protesting in Tallahassee as
