Monday June 24, 2013 11:59 am Marshall Gore has 6 hours left to live. seen it on the news earlier. I've been up since 3am. I'm writing people to get them to send e-mails to churches to try to get protesters out here protesting these executions. so that's been my morning. They called recreation earlier for everyone else. I'm sending a request to the assistant warden to try to get my rec back so I can go out with everyone else. I'm going to work out while there outside. Hate these execution days!"

3:51 PM. The guys just come back from recreation and there was a fight out there. one guy from up stairs one guy from down here.

And I heard he got beat really bad." The officers are down there packing his property right now. so they will both be over there on DC. Greg maybe in the hospital. And that's the way it is in here. I worked out earlier. waiting on dinner, showers and then bed.

5:48 PM. just seen on the news that Gore got a stay. so that's good news. I'm just waiting on the shower. After which I'm going to sleep. They packed Greg up. he is out getting stitches.

so he will be in lock up until the end of July.
I know his wife and mother is going to be upset.
Tuesday June 25, 2013 5:08am. Waking on breakfast. Got up at 3:50. Cleaned up. Was watching the news. I seen the 11th circuit gave Gore that stay on being mentally ill. They will have a hearing on it tomorrow. I'm going to write a couple of letters this morning and workout later on. see what else today holds.

7:45am. Got a couple of letters written. Fixing to go ahead and workout. This afternoon I have a law library call out. I'd like to get the workout done and bath before I go. so time to get to it.

10:30am. I worked out then wrote mom and just been sitting here waiting to cool down some before I wash up and get ready for the law library.

5:34pm. went to the law library.

I haven't seen in awhile. and I don't really care for seeing him. He's not trust worthy.

8:30am. It's an oven in here!" It's only 78° outside but the humidity is 90% which is what makes it so hot. I was washing my pillow case and broke into a sweat.

3:35 PM. Just finished working out. I'm pouring sweat. It's burning up in here. I got along good with the sgt. I heard warden Reddish and then did dirt to him as well. I've heard a lot of officers say that. Reddish was just evil!" That guy is a demon, he has an evil seed in his mind and heart.

Thursday June 27, 2013 7:45am. Just finished a letter sitting here listening to my music. Marshall Gore is set for killing at 6pm today unless the court stops it again. I don't think I'd want that. you get mentally prepared to die and then you get down to the last hour and they stop it and give you another 48 or 72 hours to count down. That is torture, civilized society my a--!" uncivilized barbaric satanic society is more like it! Well I've got a few churches that I need to write. I've got a workout to do and just see what else today may hold. Christian volunteer's should
