

To Whom it may concern

To the lady who as of yet is not part of my life I would like to Open the door to a friendship built on communication and mystery, I just Want to know if you're the type of person that is willing to take a chance

Hopefully you are because if not these words will be presented to blind eyes, in all honesty

Only you can make the choice to write a genuine man searching for God's treasure ~ a true friend

Maybe by taking a chance to get to know me we will be able to build a foundation of

Incredible strength and durability a foundation not built on the physical

That most people focus on, to the detriment of there happiness

Mostly I'm writing this because loneliness has began to spread through me like

A deadly cancer and a delivery from the mailman is the only cure I know and you hold the prescription pad, all you have to do is put your pen and pad together, I understand

Caution I would use it to if I received a letter from an unknown person, so with that in mind

Open up to me at your own pace ~ we can start off learning each others favorite flower,

Now don't get me wrong I'm not trying to make it seem that we have to Connect or agree on

Every level because no one can, no matter how much they say they are or can, but that

Really doesn't matter because we aren't on that level yet, but hopefully in the near future we will reach that point and beyond, but until then I'll be writing on your prescription
